

Lupers Celebrate Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary At Open House Sunday Afternoon

A social event of the past week, which has been acclaimed by all who attended as one of the high spots on the social calendar was the celebration of the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Luper last Sunday, October 22 at their attractive country home near Tangent. One of the features of the affair was the presence of several persons who were present at the Luper's wedding fifty years ago, they were: Mrs. Rova McFarland Conn, Lester McFarland, both of near Tangent, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Moses and Mrs. Elizabeth Woodworth of Philomath.

Open house was held from 4 until 8 o'clock and during those hours, Mr. and Mrs. Luper greeted more than 200 persons.

Mr. and Mrs. Luper stood in the living room before a back ground of autumn leaves, yellow chrysanthemums in tall baskets. The autumn leaves were placed around a large mirror. Golden colored candles in tall candelabra and other baskets filled with golden colored chrysanthemums were used about the living room. A cluster of golden wedding bells hung above the heads of Mr. and Mrs. Luper.

Mrs. Luper wore an afternoon dress of silk lace, of ashes of roses shade, which was the same shade she wore at her wedding fifty years ago. She wore an orchid corsage.

The dining room had as its decorations golden colored marigolds. A lace cloth covered the serving table and silver candelbra had tall golden tapers also on the table. The table was centered with an arrangement of large golden colored marigolds.

The golden wedding cake was served from a side table by Mrs. Delmer Luper.

The guests were greeted at the door by Miss Ludella Luper and Miss Marilyn Luper, granddaughters of Mr. and Mrs. Luper. The girls each wore a blue tafetta Kate Greenaway frock.

During the afternoon music was furnished by Roy Stenberg, violin, Mrs. Glenn Junkin, piano, Mrs. Loren Luper, vibraphone, Mrs. Nina Jenks, vocalist, and vocal numbers by the Misses Ludella and Marilyn Luper. Loren Luper, trombonist and Delmer Luper, saxophonist also played several numbers, with Mrs. Junkin as accompanist.

Mr. and Mrs. Luper were married October 23, 1889 in Tangent, and have continuously lived on the farm on which they now reside. They have three children, Mrs. Howard Jenks, Salem; Loren Luper, Albany, and Delmer Luper, Medford. Both Mr. and Mrs. Luper are engaged in poultry raising.

Presiding at the coffee urns were: Mrs. Loren Luper, Mrs. Delmer Luper, Mrs. D. W. Shirley, Miss Beulah Hinckley, Mrs. G. M. Junkin and Mrs. Ed Grell.

Assisting about the rooms and in the serving were: Miss Ardis Jenks, Miss Marvine Jenks, Mrs. Marlow Jenks, Mrs. Robert Cale, Miss Maxine Kramer.

Miss Virginia Jenks was in charge of the guest book.

Most of those who called to honor Mr. and Mrs. Luper were from Albany and Tangent, others coming from a greater distance were: Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Gildow, Miss Beulah Hinckley, James E. Larwood, Florence Larwood, Frank Larwood, Vivian Cochran, Mary Larwood Beard, Maxine Kramer, Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor P. Moses, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Trask, Captain Harry Beard, Miss Gean Beard, Corvallis.

Mrs. A. J. Starmer, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Cormier, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Stewart, Lebanon.

Judge and Mrs. Percy R. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. White, Mrs. Ora Burres, Mrs. C. Mehring, Carl Mehring, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Headrick, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Canfield, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gabriel, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Guenther, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn

Selentz, Miss Dorothy Cornelius, Salem.

Mrs. George Hubbs, Silverton and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Glass, Eugene.

* * * *

Mrs. Thomas Presents Pupils In Recital

Thursday evening of last week Mrs. Jane Thomas presented two of her high school students in piano recital.

Miss Betty Barrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Barrett, and Miss Sylvia Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Arnold featured the program. Each played two groups of piano solos and also played together in four two-piano numbers in a very pleasing manner. The program was attended by an appreciative group. Invitations were issued to nearly 50 persons.

* * * *

Kensington Members At Spoor Home

Mrs. Gleeda Spoor extended the hospitality of her home at 624 Washington street, to the members of the Kensington club at a charmingly appointed luncheon Friday, October 20.

Later in the afternoon a clever contest was enjoyed, with Mrs. Rex Putnam of Salem winning the prize.

A short business meeting was held and the remainder of the afternoon was spent informally.

Fall flowers and decorations in keeping with the approaching Hallowe'en were used about the rooms.

Thirteen club members and one guest, Mrs. Harold Fisher were present.

* * * *

Leisure Hour Members Elect Officers

Mrs. Marshall M. Woodworth was hostess last Friday afternoon to the members of the Leisure Hour Book club at her home on Sixth and Walnut streets at tea from 3 until 5 o'clock.

A business meeting was held during the afternoon with Mrs. T. G. Cowgill being taken into the club as a new member. Election of officers was also held with the same group of officers being re-elected. They are: Mrs. C. E. Sox, president; Mrs. M. D. McPherson, vice-president and Mrs. Mark V. Weatherford, secretary-treasurer.

Fifteen members were present.

* * * *

Missionary Group Meets At Troutman Home

Mrs. Otto Lance's missionary group of the First Christian church met with Mrs. C. A. Troutman, with Mrs. Troutman and Mrs. Clara Lemon serving a full course luncheon at 1 o'clock.

The afternoon, following the luncheon, was spent in a business and social hour.

Fourteen members were present and the following guests: Mrs. Aleatha Starr Bergman, Mrs. Mason, Mill City, and Mrs. H. N. Cockerline.

* * * *

D. of H. Officers Hold Meeting

Tuesday evening the Officers' club of the Degree of Honor met at the home of Mrs. Sara Lamb. Nine officers answered roll call and a business meeting preceded the social hour, which was brought to a close by the serving of a light lunch.